

Biography

Clara Dent was born in Berlin and grew up in Salzburg (Austria).

She began her oboe-studies with Prof. Arthur Jensen at the Mozarteum in Salzburg and graduated under the tuition of Prof. Günther Passin at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Munich.

She is Prize-winner of the ARD Competition in Munich and the Intern. Competition in Geneva.

She performs as a soloist with many renowned orchestras and has had numerous solo performances recorded for CD and radio. Her solo albums „Les Folies d` Espagne“ and „La Primadonna“ were highly praised by critics.

She is the principal oboist in the Berlin Radio Symphony Orchestra since 1999.

Clara Dent teaches since 2009 as professor for oboe at the „Hochschule für Musik“ in Nürnberg. She furthermore gives international master classes and joins Festivals all over Europe and Asia.